

[A Key Verses 2]

Genesis 41:1 – And it came to pass, after the completion of two full years, that Pharaoh had a dream where he stood over the Nile.

Matthew 24:32 – “Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when already the branch is to be made tender and it puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near.”

*Matthew 24:32 – “Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when the branch is to be broken off to transition from one realm to another appears with an unconditional offer of a sacrifice used for the satisfaction of a debt to save one from the Lake of Fire resulting in a huge increase in the number of disciples, you know beyond a shadow of a doubt that the time of the final gathering is near.”

[B Definitions 6]

adverb – ‘to modify or restrict the meaning of a verb’

apathy – ‘a lack of feeling or emotion combined with the absence of true interest or concern’

complacent – ‘marked by self-satisfaction especially when accompanied by unawareness of actual dangers or deficiencies’

mature – ‘based on slow and careful consideration’

sloth – ‘disinclination to action or labor’
Bible: ‘having spiritual apathy and inactivity’

tender – ‘an unconditional offer of a sacrifice for the satisfaction of a debt to save one from a penalty’

[C Greek Words 9]

- [2] ek-FIE-ee
it puts forth – ‘to generate or cause to grow’
- [30] en-GUYS
near – ‘close, near at hand or nearby’
- [46] GEN-neh-tie
is to be made– ‘to transition from a realm or condition to another’
- [22] ghin-NOS-ka-tey
you know – ‘to know absolutely’
- [2] hap-pah-LOS
tender – ‘of the branch of a tree, when filled with sap’
- [2] KLAH-dos
branch – ‘a branch in the sense of being broken off for the purpose of grafting’
- [6] PHY-la
leaves – ‘a sprout or a leaf’
- [4] sigh-KES
fig tree – ‘a fig tree, the nation of Israel’
- [3] THER-os
summer– ‘in the heat, the time of the harvest’

[D Hebrew Words 3]

- [25] hay-OR
the Nile – ‘a stream, canal or in this case river’
- [11] se-nah-TAH-yim
of two – ‘of a whole age, or a specified length of time’
- [269] yah-MIM
full years – ‘a day, days, a period of time or an age’
‘to be hot, as in the heat of the day’